

NITI AAYOG

The Planning Commission which has a legacy of 65 years has been replaced by the NITI Aayog.

The utility and significance of the Planning Commission had been questioned for a longer period. The replacement seems to be more relevant and responsive to the present economic needs and scenario in the country.

BRIEF HISTORY OF PLANNING COMMISSION

- * PLANNING COMMISSION WAS AN INSTITUTION FORMED IN MARCH 15 1950 , BY GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
- IT FORMULATED INDIA'S 5 YEAR PLAN
- NITI AAYOG IS FORMED VIA EXECUTIVE ACTION BY THE UNION CABINET ON JANUARY 1, 2015
- its subsequent amendment dated 16 th February 2015,

Structure of NITI Aayog :

- Prime Minister of India is the Chairperson
- Governing Council consists of the Chief Ministers of all the States and Lt. Governors of Union Territories in India.
- Regional Councils will be created to address particular issues and possibilities affecting more than one state. These will be formed for a fixed term. It will be summoned by the Prime Minister. It will consist of the Chief Ministers of States and Lt. Governors of Union Territories. These will be chaired by the Chairperson of the NITI Aayog or his nominee.
- Special invitees: Eminent experts, specialists with relevant domain knowledge, which will be nominated by the Prime Minister.
- The full-time organizational framework will include, in addition to the Prime Minister as the Chairperson:

- Vice-Chairperson (appointed by the Prime Minister)
- Members:
 - Full-time
 - Part-time members: Maximum of 2 members from foremost universities, leading research organizations, and other innovative organizations in an ex-officio capacity. Part-time members will be on a rotational basis.
- Ex Officio members: Maximum of 4 members of the Council of Ministers which is to be nominated by the Prime Minister.
- Chief Executive Officer: CEO will be appointed by the Prime Minister for a fixed tenure. He will be in the rank of Secretary to the Government of India.

Functions of NITI Aayog :

- Create a federal system in which national and state governments work in harmony and coordination.
- Implement rural development schemes and initiatives.
- Ensure that economic strategy and policy are in the best interests of national security.
- Encourage partnerships between key stakeholders and like-minded think tanks on a national and international scale, as well as educational and policy research institutions.

With the assistance of national and international experts, practitioners, and other partners, develop a knowledge, innovation, and entrepreneurial support system. Maintain a cutting-edge Resource Center and serve as a research hub for good governance and best practises in sustainable* and equitable* development. Actively monitor and evaluate programme and initiative implementation, with a focus on technology upgradation and capacity building.