Summary writing is a writing skill. It needs practice. Take small passage initially. Read it carefully. Calculate the words. Try to reduce each sentence without losing its sense. Remove examples and illustrations if any. Avoid repeated and unnecessary information. Use simple sentences. Use one word for group of words where ever possible.
e.g. The person who leads India= Indian Captain.
Search the key words and join them with relevant words.
Reduce the passage up to one third. Give the title to the summary considering the central idea of the passage.
