Have You Earn Your Tomorrow?

-Edgar Guest

Stanza 1

Rhyming Scheme of the Poem aabb

Is anybody happier because you passed his way?

Does anyone remember that you spoke to him today?

This day is almost over and it's toiling time is through;

Is there anyone to utter now a kindly word of you?

Stanza 2

Did you give a cheerful greeting to the friend who came along?

Or a churlish shot of “Hwody” and then vanish in the throng?

Were you selfish pure and simple as you rushed along the way,

Or is someone mighty grateful for did you did today?

Stanza 3

Can you save tonight, in parting with the days that's slipping fast,
That you helped a single brother of the many that you passed?

Is a single heart rejoicing over what you did or said;

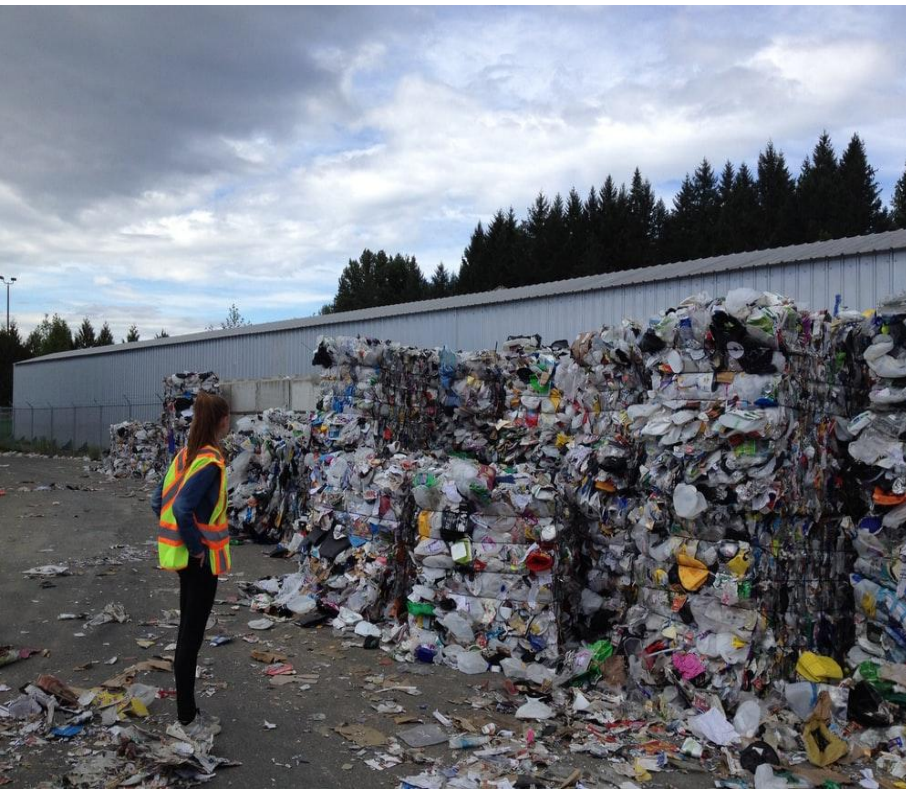

Does man whose hopes were fading now with courage look ahead?

Stanza 4

Did you waste the day, or lose it, was it well or sorely spent?

Did you leave a trail of kindness or a scar of discontent?

As you close your eyes in slumber do you think that God would say,
You have earned one more tomorrow by the work you did today?

A grayscale photograph of a person with dark hair, wearing a dark coat, looking out of a window. The person's face is partially obscured by the window frame and the text overlay. The background outside the window is blurry, showing what appears to be a city street with buildings and trees. The overall mood is contemplative and introspective.

Always ask yourself
if what you're doing today is getting you closer to where you want to be tomorrow.
