

Pillars of Democracy

Honourable Principal 'Sandeep Patil Sir', Respected Chief Guest,
teachers and all my dear friends, a very warm and pleasant morning to one and all.
Today, I would like to express my views,
on the topic, 'Pillars of Democracy'.

The 1st thought that arises is, that what is the exact meaning of democracy?
Former American President 'Abraham Lincoln' has very beautifully described democracy, as "Democracy
is the government, of the people, by the people,
for the people, shall not perish from the earth",
which simply means, a way of governing,
which depends on, the desire/wish of citizens.

To maintain the huge building of democracy,
it is supported by its 4 strong pillars - Legislature, Executive, Judiciary and the media.

1) The 1st pillar of democracy is 'Legislature'. This pillar is responsible for making the laws to govern a country. These laws are formed in 2 ways. 1) One is directly by the citizens also known as 'Direct Democracy'. 2) Other is through the representatives elected by the citizens also known as 'Indirect Democracy'. In India the legislature follows indirect democracy in the form of 'Lok Sabha' and 'Rajya Sabha'.

2) The 2nd pillar of democracy is 'Executive'. It is responsible for implementing the laws formed by the legislature and issues orders, for its implementation. In India the executives consist of Prime Ministers and the council of ministers.

3> The 3rd and key pillar of democracy is 'Judiciary'. Judiciary keeps a check on laws given by legislature and orders issued by the executive. Judiciary ensures the protection of the Constitution of India. What makes it special is the 'Judicial Review'. If the 2 pillars violate the constitution, due to any law, judiciary has the power to declare the law as illegal. 'Supreme Court' is the highest court of Justice in India.

4> The 4th and very important pillar of democracy is 'Media'. Media ensures the transparency in the working of all the pillars of democracy. They are the eyes and ears of general public.

But after knowing the importance of pillars of democracy, a question is striking my mind that "If we are having the pillars of democracy, then why today also, people of India are facing the problem of either unjust or delayed justice, lack of strict rules, fake news etc?"

Principal Sir, I want to ask one question to you Sir if the laws or rules of the college are not implemented strictly by the administrative council then will the college run/function properly? The same is the case. In the same way the legislature has to make favourable laws, the executive has to implement them strictly, the Judiciary has to give proper and as early as possible justice.

Today the pillars of democracy are continuously being attacked, by the insects of corruption, politics, bribe, hero-worship etc. On 8th December, 2019, India's Vice-President Shri Venkaiah Naidu said that "The strength of democracy, depends on the strength of each pillar and the way pillars complement each other.

Any shaky pillar, weakens the democratic structure "

The architect of the Constitution Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar ^{had} said that

"To strengthen democracy, we should, make our political democracy a social democracy"

which means, following the trinity of equality, liberty and fraternity.

We are the future citizens of India. So from today, start from 'I', 'I' as a proud and a responsible citizen of India will respect and follow all the pillars of democracy and will take India to a greater heights.

At last, I would like to end my speech with few lines:->

संविधानाचे जाणूनी महत्त्व
संविधानाचा राखूनी मान
लोकहितवादी लोकशाहीला
संविधानाचा असे अभिमान
